YEMI THE APOSTLE

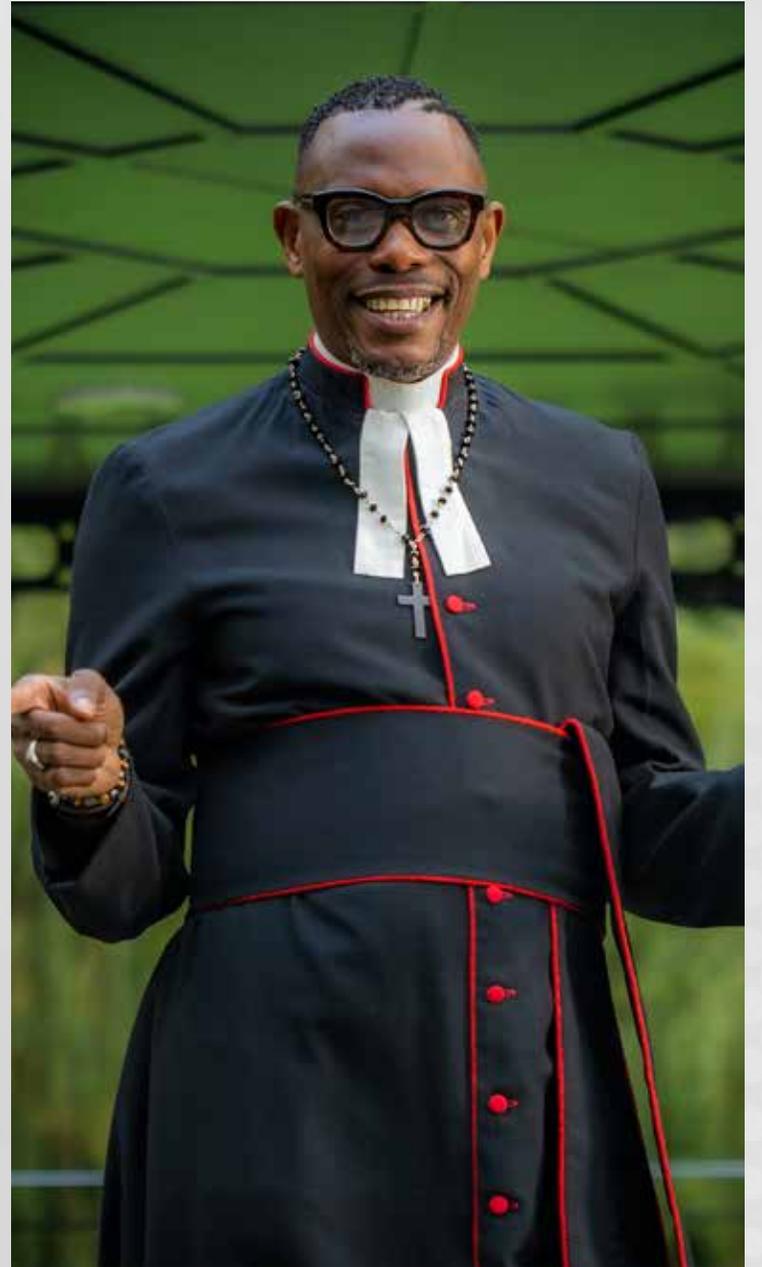

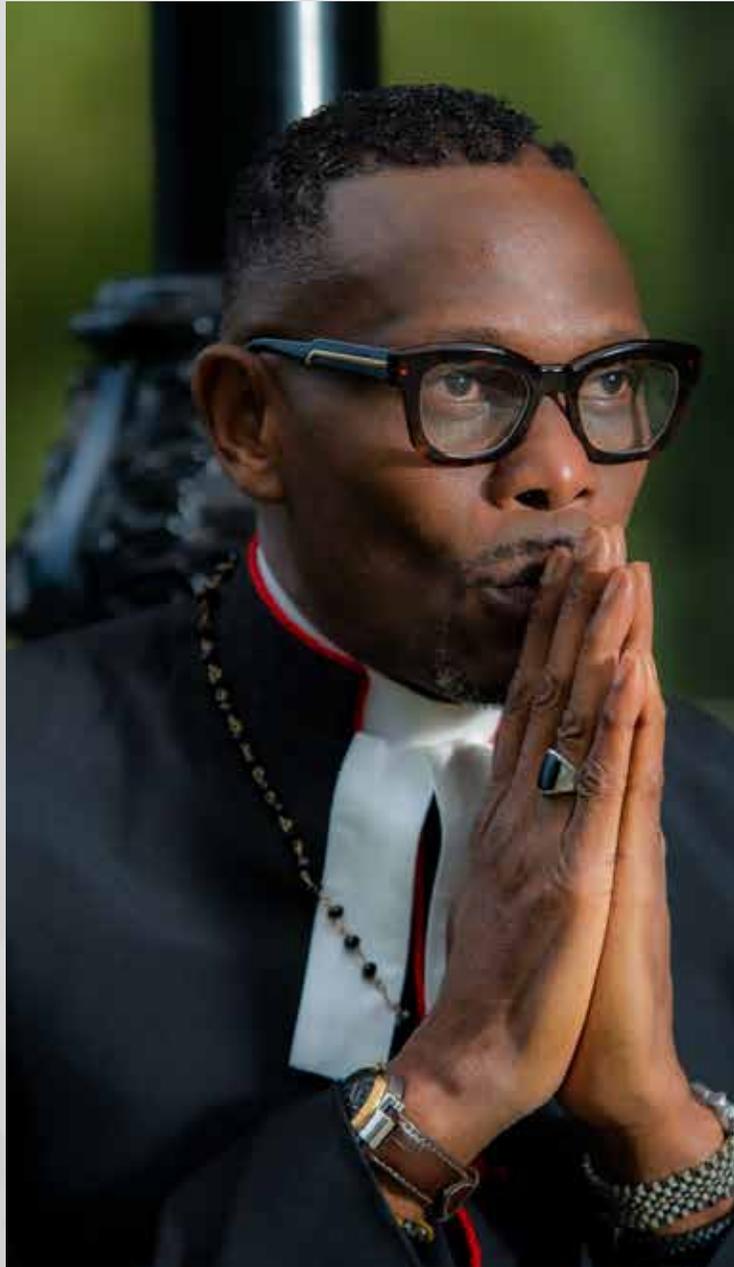

Yemi is a Bishop Canon Commissary and Priest with Church of England and also a Pentecostal Pastor at Jesus House London. He is passionate about helping leaders connect while building bridges between the established church and the Pentecostal church movements. Yemi is a consummate evangelist with great passion for mission and integration.

He served at the Church Mission Society and later became the first African appointed as Trustee Director of the largest mission outlet of the church of England. Currently serving as the Global Ambassador for Compassion UK, Yemi has connected churches and leaders within his network to release over 6000 children out of poverty. Yemi is a theologian and a Governor both at London School of Theology and Christ the Redeemer Bible College.

He is a passionate speaker and teacher with footprints in over 58 countries across the globe.

Yemi's ultimate passion is to help people have the confidence, the tools and the language to share the good news of Jesus to all. For further information on how Yemi can help you grow in Mission and Evangelism click here.

YEMI THE AUTHOR

Yemi's latest book "The Impossible Dream" explores diversity, inclusion and integration across racially divided communities. With thousands sold and downloaded, the book has served as a one-of-a kind resource to bridge the gap generated by racial injustice. His book "Move into Position" was first published in 2015 and is currently going through a reprint after a successful debut. Yemi is currently working on his new book, due to be published soon.
